1. Introduction

The contemporary global business world requires that employees and managers develop cross-cultural competence to work effectively in international assignments, on cross-cultural teams, with increasingly diverse customers and clients, and to effectively collaborate with competitors, suppliers, partners and other relevant stakeholders. This course is designed to introduce students to comparisons of significant cross-cultural differences and helps them to become familiar with ways to effectively anticipate and address cultural differences toward organizational and individual success.

2. Course Objectives

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. For the student to better understand how various management functions are impacted by cross-cultural differences.
2. Participants will have the opportunity to become familiar with findings from multiple real world studies of cross-cultural managerial differences.
3. Opportunities will be provided for students to develop specific skills that can be used to anticipate and successfully address cross-cultural differences at a managerial level from theoretical and practical perspectives.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

1. Students will be able to identify potential intercultural synergies and develop strategic plans to help organizations use them to improve market penetration, employee engagement, customer loyalty, and profits.
2. Students will understand methods of optimizing human performance and potential in organizations.
3. Students will understand culture and how it impacts organizations and businesses.
4. Students will have a working knowledge of several specific countries' cultures and several domestic Korean subcultures.
5. Students will understand human diversity, how it impacts organizations and businesses, and how it relates to culture.
6. Students will demonstrate improved cultural intelligence skills and ability to work with others from different cultures.
7. Students will be aware of and have practice using specific strategies to deal with challenges posed by diversity at the individual and organization levels.
