1. Introduction

This course is an introduction to the study of international relations. The purpose of the course is to provide a theoretical and historical basis for analyzing and understanding international relations. The major topics of this course are interstate war, international political economy, human right practices, and other current global conflicts including terrorism, environmental degradation, and nuclear proliferation. We will discuss the nature of the international system, the causes of international conflicts and the difficulties faced by states as well as non-state actors in establishing cooperation and resolving conflicts. We will also consider political dimensions of the international trade, financial, and monetary relations.

2. Course Objectives

The course will prepare you for more advanced classes in international relations. And it will also help you develop analytical skills to understand current world events.
